The J-M Fire Extinguisher has two methods of operation: By pumping while discharging; or by pumping up compressed air with the nozzle closed and then discharging. In the latter method of operation it is not necessary to pump while the stream is in play. This feature is invaluable when fighting fires in cramped quarters, where every bit of available room is taken up by the person attacking the blaze. Lundie Bros. tf

WELL KNOWN HORSE DIES AT RENO TRACK

ATTACK OF SPASMODIC COLIC KILLS EARL KOENIG, A HIGH BRED ANIMAL

Earl Koenig, property of Watson & Kane of Susanville, who had been racing on the Reno track for a number of years and who, until he broke down two years ago, gave promise of being one of the best horses in the west, died suddenly Tuesday night at the track of spasmodic colic.

Earl Koenig was a chestnut stallion by Ravelston out of Queen Annie II. He was bred and raised at the stables of John G. Driscoll of Reno, now of San Luis Obispo, and developed remarkable speed as a youngster. He raced frequently on the Reno track and was in the money in almost every event entered, holding at one time the track record for four and one-half furlongs. He became the property of Watson & Kane when a colt, his late owners being remembered here as former owner of the Sagebrush club on Commercial row.

AMATEUR ATHLETIC RECORDS TO BE KEPT

SOLDIERS OF THE MILITIA WILL RECEIVE ATTENTION FROM WAR DEPARTMENT

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, July 6.—Officers of the Amateur Athletic Union are preparing a list of the soldier athletes of the various state militia with the idea of having a complete record of every man who is prominent in sport and who is or may be enrolled with the forces now being sent to the Mexican border. A circular letter has been sent to every A. A. U. division, club, and military organization asking that the names of all men serving with the troops be forwarded to headquarters together with their records.

WILSON'S RESORT FOR SALE

Ill health compels me to leave the state and offer for sale at a sacrifice the well known Wilson's Resort north of Tonopah. The place covers several mining claims, is well shaded, stocked with vehicles, horses, pumps, gas engines and all appurtenances required in operating the place either for a home ranch or resort. The water supply is the best and the resort is the only one close to the largest mining camp in Nevada. The entire place with good will and fixtures will be sold. Investigation invited. Make me an offer.

ELKO PLEDGES CAVALRY TROOP

At a meeting held in Elko Saturday a troop of cavalry was pledged and Gov. Boyle so informed. The troop will remain in Elko awaiting orders from the War department.

QUARANTINE RAISED BY THE GOVERNOR

LIVE STOCK MAY BE BROUGHT INTO THE STATE WITHOUT RESTRICTION

A proclamation by the governor relative to quarantine against the importation into the state of Nevada of live stock from other states was issued July 1.

This quarantine order raises the quarantine which the state has maintained since November, 1914, on account of the "foot-and-mouth" disease, restoring normal traffic conditions in live stock.

The tuberculin test is only required for dairy and breeding cattle; other classes of cattle may come into the state upon physical examination. Cattle and hogs for immediate slaughter will be accepted without certification, the owner filing a statement stating the number of cattle, their origin and destination, in lieu of a certificate. Branded range cattle from California, Oregon, Idaho and Utah will be allowed to enter without examination, a similar statement from the owner serving in lieu of a certificate of inspection. The mallein test is not required for horses, asses and mules, these animals being allowed to enter upon a certificate of physical examination.

No relaxation of the rabies quarantine is made in this order, nor does the order cover the movement of sheep into Nevada.

GOLDFIELD CONTESTS DRAW GOOD CROWD

ATTENDANCE WAS LARGELY ASSISTED BY ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD OF TONOPAH FANS

Dick Hyland gained the decision over Danny Mathews in a ten round go at Goldfield Athletic club last night. The first six rounds Mathews had a slight advantage. Hyland pitched into Mathews in the seventh and kept at it until the close of the fight. He landed where and when he pleased. Kid Bromero boxed Young DuPont six fast rounds. A draw was declared by the referee, Paddy O'Hearn put it all over Maxwell in the second preliminary, which lasted six rounds. Bert Williams was given the decision in a six round fight over Trounce. Trounce was knocked down in the first round, but came back and lasted the remainder of the bout.

The house was a $900 one and, considering that the fight had been postponed several times, the promoters were entirely satisfied. Over thirty autos from Tonopah went over.

INCENDIARY FIRE TAKES TWO LIVES

APARTMENT HOUSE CONSUMED WITH SUCH RAPIDITY THAT ESCAPE IS CUT OFF

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Two women, one of whom was Mrs. Hazel Harrison, were burned to death, and eight other persons were burned and injured in a spectacular blaze which consumed the Grand apartments, 945 Golden Gate avenue, at 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin. Swiftly following the snuffing out of the lives of three women, Garfield Adams, formerly a tenant of the Grand apartments and who is said to have had a quarrel recently with the proprietor of the apartments, was arrested.

Flames burst forth with such fury and gained headway so quickly that tenants on the second and third floors were trapped. So fiercely did the billows of fire lap up the structure that Fire Chief Thomas R. Murphy promptly rung in a third alarm. By the time life nets were assembled men and women, sharply silhouetted against the red banks of flame which swirled at them, screamed to be rescued. As the life nets were spread Chief Murphy urged the men and women, some of the women holding babies to their breasts, to leap for their lives.

AFTER THE REACTION COMES THE TRUTH

WHEN READERS GET OVER THE 4TH BONANZA WILL PRINT "MARRIED ON A BET"

The Fourth of July celebration and accompanying activities made it advisable to postpone the publication of "Married on a Bet" until the absorbing story could have undivided public attention. It is all ready and will be published soon—on the day the editor considers the most auspicious.

Quite a number of those involved in the story have seen the proof sheets and all are agreed that the story is in good taste, well written, full of interesting local color and in many ways beneficial to the city.

APPEAL FOR IRISH RELIEF FUND FROM SAN FRANCISCO

Archbishop Hanna of San Francisco has issued a general appeal to raise funds for the assistance of the Irish sufferers left in distress in the old country. The circular states that, owing to the rigid censorship maintained it is impossible to describe the fearful conditions that have been brought out through a private medium. The situation is summarized in the following description by Rev. E. T. O'Dwyer, who states: "The appalling truth is that this is one of the worst and blackest chapters in the history of the misgovernment of the country. In the provinces the prisons are filled with men, women and children, and over 4000 are interned in English concentration camps. No provision has been made for the families of the men kept in prison."

ROUND MOUNTAIN COUPLE MARRIED AT ST. PATRICK'S

William J. McDonald, of Tonopah but at present employed by the Round Mountain Mining company at Round Mountain, and Miss C. E. Bohar, also of Tonopah, were married last evening at 5:30 at St. Patrick's Catholic church by Rev. Father Dias. The bridesmaid was Miss Marie Bohar and the groom was attended by Joe Bohar, brother and sister of the bride. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The groom was formerly clerk of the Mizpah hotel and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. T. Bohar, of this city. The young couple will reside at Round Mountain.

BUTLER THEATER

Pauline Frederick, in two roles in the same production, "The Spider," which will be shown at the Butler this evening. This is the first time that this great star, who recently appeared in "Zaza" and "Bella Donna," has ever appeared on the screen in widely different characterizations. In "The Spider" Miss Frederick plays Valerie St. Cyr, a notorious Parisian beauty, and her abandoned daughter, Joan Marche. The one has fled with a profligate nobleman, leaving her little baby with its sickly, poverty stricken father. The baby grows up to be a beautiful girl, who is employed in a flower shop. She becomes engaged to a young artist of very puritanical principles who is drawn to her by her unsophisticated and rare beauty. Thus Miss Frederick is called upon to portray characters directly opposed to each other and must suggest the careworn, weary woman of the world who is tired of her foolish bargain, while in the other instance she is the innocent epitome of exuberant spirits, pulsing with the mere joy of living, and though the interpretation of such exacting roles would be a difficult task for the average actress no one who has ever seen Miss Frederick, either on stage or screen, will doubt her ability to enact both characters with distinction. The preliminary reel will be Pathe Weekly.

Tomorrow, "The Lights of New York," featuring the beautiful Vitagraph star, Leah Baird, who has not been seen by the Tonopah public for some time. Saturday, Chaplin, the million dollar comedian, in his burlesque on "Carmen," four reels of riot and fun.

Slick Jones says his wife's fed him so many cereals he begins to feel like a continued story.—Louisville Herald.
